“CLIENT RELATIONSHIPS BUILT ON STRONG COMMUNICATION AND AN ENDURING SENSE OF TRUST YIELD INCREDIBLE RESULTS.”

What are the fundamental elements of design that inspire the way people live? “I have spent my career designing homes across the nation that explore the balance between beauty and function, and the ways in which they intertwine to enhance our personal well-being,” replies Stephanie Larsen, Founder and Principal Designer at Stephanie Larsen Interior Design. Over the last 25-plus years, the Sedona-based designer has amassed an impressive portfolio of award-winning projects using that simple, yet powerful approach. “My firm is known for being on the cutting edge of holistic luxury design,” she shares.

“I’m proud to offer my clients thoughtful, state-of-the-art solutions that blend elegant aesthetics with performance-focused amenities that elevate their day-to-day.” When asked how she and her team include the client in their design process, Larsen explains, “By taking a highly collaborative approach from the very start, we establish a strong sense of communication that enables us to understand their wants, needs and visions. From there, we harness our extensive network of global design partners so that we can deliver the finest details to every corner of their home and create a beautiful, comforting oasis that reflects who they are, what they love and the lifestyle they wish to lead.”

ON A PERSONAL NOTE

- Describe the type of client you work with most often.

I typically work with homeowners who are looking to create luxurious spaces that support healthy living.

- How has sustainability influenced your designs?

Prioritizing sustainable, natural materials is something I strive for in every space I create. Leaning away from synthetics in favor of stone, linen and natural woods not only offers a more organic approach to design but also helps to ground a space in the natural world.

- To this point, what has been your greatest success?

My greatest success has been the recognition I’ve received from respected publications and my colleagues in the design community.

- Share a location in which you’d love to design.

At the top of my dream project list is Phuket, Thailand!

- Share an emerging design trend.

The focus on health and wellness, and I’m proud that my firm is at the forefront of this new wave.

- What’s next?

In addition to continuing to pursue local, national and international projects, I’m planning to open a studio space in Scottsdale. It’s a next step for my business that my team and I are really looking forward to.
